PRACTICES Litigation, Class Action Defense, Employment Litigation

Alfredo Amoedo is an associate in the Litigation Practice Group in Haynes and Boone's San Francisco office.

His practice focuses on commercial and employment litigation, and includes assisting domestic and foreign clients at all stages of litigation, from pre-suit demands through trial. Alfredo has handled litigation matters involving intellectual property, securities, unfair competition, employment, and consumer fraud issues. He has also guided clients on business and regulatory issues, particularly to assess, manage, and reduce future litigation risks or adverse impacts on existing matters. He has also coordinated the defense of foreign class action lawsuits—including actions in Argentina, Canada, and Israel.
