PRACTICES Litigation, Insurance Recovery

As counsel in the Litigation Practice Group in the Orange County office of Haynes Boone and a member of the firm's Insurance Recovery Group, Joseph represents policyholders when insurance companies deny, delay or underpay claims. He has worked on virtually all lines of commercial and professional insurance and has helped his clients recover over $400 million in insurance coverage benefits. His experience spans a broad spectrum from assisting individual homeowners to secure coverage benefits necessary to rebuild their homes after a loss to representing publicly-traded corporations in billion dollar catastrophic exposure cases. He prides himself on his results-oriented approach, always focused on what is best for the client's overall interests and finding creative strategies to achieve the most cost-effective resolution for the client.

Before joining Haynes Boone, Joseph worked as a senior associate in a nationally-recognized insurance recovery firm as well as an insurance litigation partner at a mid-sized Los Angeles firm. This experience has helped Joseph develop a flexible approach to representing a diverse client base that can be tailored to handling anything from personal lines insurance denials to major, high-dollar coverage litigation, and everything in between. He also has become adept at working with his clients' trusted advisors and key stakeholders to ensure that strategies developed further the client's overall goals and mission.
