PRACTICES Energy, Power and Natural Resources, Oil and Gas, Energy Finance, Asset Securitization

Hayley Butler is a Professional Landman in the Energy Practice Group of Haynes and Boone's Houston office. Hayley focuses on title due diligence and mortgage reviews for reserve-based lending transactions and energy financing deals for upstream and midstream assets. She is experienced in preparing documents, conducting title review, and overseeing multi-jurisdictional filing projects, including the BLM, BOEM, BIA at the federal level, and various state, county, and parish level agencies.

Prior to joining Haynes and Boone, Hayley worked in-house for an upstream exploration and production company based in the Permian Basin, where she managed title and leasing projects, prepared reserve-based lending reports, and drafted oil and gas agreements.

Hayley graduated summa cum laude from Texas State University with her Bachelor of Business Administration in Management. She is an active member of the American Association of Professional Landmen and the Houston Association of Professional Landmen.
