PRACTICES Capital Markets and Securities, Corporate, Mergers and Acquisitions

Victoria Collins is an associate in Haynes Boone's Capital Markets and Securities Practice Group in the New York office. She focuses on complex corporate and capital market transactions, including private equity investments, securities law matters and mergers and acquisitions. Victoria brings a collaborative approach to managing due diligence, drafting and negotiating agreements, and coordinating closing processes for clients across diverse industries.

Her background includes experience in entity governance, securitization, and real estate which allows her to navigate intricate deal structures with precision. Victoria is deeply committed to professional development and firm citizenship, actively engaging in initiatives that strengthen client relationships and support community service. She also maintains a strong interest in pro-bono work, particularly projects that empower small businesses and underserved communities.
