

David Dodds

Counsel

David.Dodds@haynesboone.com

Dallas

+1 214.651.5216

PRACTICES Litigation

David Dodds is a counsel in the Dallas office of Haynes and Boone. He focuses his practice on professional responsibility and compliance and serves as the firm's internal Compliance Counsel.

David has approximately twenty years' experience representing corporations and their directors and officers in a wide range of complex commercial lawsuits, including many securities and shareholder suits, class and derivative actions, and fiduciary disputes.

Professional and Community Activities

- State Bar of Texas
 - Texas Bar Foundation
-

QUALIFICATIONS

EDUCATION

- B.A., Sam Houston State University, 1991, magna cum laude
- J.D., St Marys University School of Law, 1994, summa cum laude

CLERKSHIPS

- 1/01/0001 - 1/01/0001
- Intern to the Honorable D. Camille Hutson-Dunn, First Court of Appeals, Houston, 1994-95
Intern to the Honorable Michol O'Connor, First Court of Appeals, Houston 1995-96

ADMISSIONS

- Texas

COURT ADMISSIONS

- U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Texas