Angus Ford is a partner in the Real Estate Practice Group at Haynes Boone's London office. He has more than 25 years of experience advising on sophisticated real estate investment and development matters across the UK and internationally, with a focus on innovative residential, retail, logistics and industrial projects, including data centers and digital infrastructure. His practice covers complex commercial acquisitions, large-scale portfolio transactions, sale and leasebacks, securitizations and cross-border investments.

Angus is known for leading high-performing teams and acting for institutional investors, developers, and occupiers on strategically significant, high-value transactions. He is widely regarded for his deep sector knowledge, particularly in logistics and data-driven real estate, and for providing commercially focused, pragmatic advice on complex and evolving market opportunities.
