

Sergio Guerrero

Associate

Sergio.Guerrero@haynesboone.com

Mexico City

+ 52 55 5249 1859

PRACTICES International, Energy, Power and Natural Resources, Mexico Energy Reform, Energy Regulatory, Downstream, Midstream, Oil and Gas, Corporate, International Arbitration, Renewable Energy, Traditional Power

Sergio Guerrero is an associate in the International Practice Group in the Mexico City office of Haynes and Boone, LLP.

His practice focuses on Energy Regulatory matters, administrative law, international arbitration, corporate and commercial practice.

Sergio has been involved in advising clients in the Mexican oil and gas industry including midstream and downstream sectors and, in the power, and renewables industry including participation in the Electricity Wholesale Market (MEM).

Additionally, he has experience in drafting commercial contracts, advising in the incorporation of companies, implementation of corporate governance, and foreign investment issues.

Sergio has also been involved in conducting internal investigations and due diligence research on regulatory compliance issues.

Professional and Community Activities

- Coach of the Universidad Panamericana Campus Aguascalientes Moot Team (Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot).

Selected Publications and Speeches

- “ASEA Issues New Transloading Guidelines” co-author, Haynes and Boone alert, January 25, 2019.
-

QUALIFICATIONS

EDUCATION

- Diplomat, Energy Law, Escuela Libre de Derecho, 2018

HAYNES BOONE

- Diplomat, International Commercial Arbitration, International Chamber of Commerce Young Arbitrators Forum, 2017
- Law Degree, Universidad Panamericana, 2020

LANGUAGES

- Spanish

ADMISSIONS

- Mexico