PRACTICES Litigation

David Z. Kahn is an associate in the Litigation Practice Group in Haynes Boone's Orange County office. His practice focuses on complex commercial litigation and IP litigation.

He earned his J.D., summa cum laude, from the University of California, Irvine School of Law, which he attended on a full scholarship as a Distinguished Decade Scholar.

During law school, David received several honors, including the Faculty Award for highest performance in a course for his work in patent law, copyright law, contracts, torts, lawyering skills II, and legal profession. He also served as a board member and executive editor of the UC Irvine Law Review. In addition, as a student in the Ninth Circuit Appellate Litigation Clinic, he victoriously briefed and argued a Cuban asylum seeker's petition for review.

David was a judicial extern for the Hon. Gail Ruderman Feuer of the California Court of Appeal for the Second District.

David earned his B.S. in Symbolic Systems from Stanford University, with a concentration in Human-Computer Interaction.
