---

Anthony Kiani-Nasseri is an associate in the Corporate Practice Group at Haynes Boone's London office.

Anthony's practice focuses on equity capital markets, including initial public offerings and fundraisings, as well as public and private mergers and acquisitions, corporate advisory and general corporate governance support.

He has experience advising public and private companies, shareholders, investors, and advisers on national and international corporate transactions, across a variety of sectors.

SELECTED CLIENT REPRESENTATIONS

- Advised a publicly listed company on its acquisition by a private equity-backed buyer via a UK scheme of arrangement.
- Advised a fusion energy/technology company on the strategic acquisition of a UK based technology and manufacturing company.
- Advised a number of private companies on corporate reorganisations, including demergers and capital reductions.
- Advised an energy company on a cross-border investment/fundraising round.
- Advised the buyer on the acquisition of a UK based manufacturing company from sellers based in the US.

Some of these representations were handled by Anthony prior to joining Haynes Boone.
