PRACTICES Litigation, Insurance Recovery

Reese Letourneau is an associate in the Insurance Recovery Practice Group in Haynes Boone's Dallas office. Her practice focuses on corporate insurance recovery in a wide array of industries. Reese represents exclusively policyholders in insurance coverage disputes, aiming to maximize recoveries under various insurance policies.

While in law school, Reese was involved in many litigation-focused organizations, including the Board of Advocates, where she served as a Membership Director. She was also a member of several Mock Trial teams and served as the Executive Director of the Brief Writing Committee, where she worked closely with faculty in the legal writing department.
