

Connor Madden

Associate | Dallas

connor.madden@haynesboone.com

PRACTICES Litigation

Connor Madden is an associate in the Litigation Practice Group in Haynes Boone's Dallas office. His practice focuses on complex commercial litigation matters, with a particular emphasis on franchise and distribution networks. As a former judicial law clerk, Connor understands how judges make decisions, and how to craft persuasive arguments to facilitate best outcomes for his clients.

Connor graduated from the University of Texas School of Law, where he served as an Associate Editor of the Texas Law Review, as a Dean's Fellow, and as President of the Texas Space Law & Policy Society.

QUALIFICATIONS

EDUCATION

- J.D., The University of Texas School of Law, 2023, Associate Editor, Volume 101, Texas Law Review; Dean's Fellow
- B.B.A., Business Management Major, Government Minor, The University of Texas at Austin, 2019
- B.A., Plan II Honors & History Major, The University of Texas at Austin, 2019

CLERKSHIPS

- Judicial Law Clerk to the Honorable Justice Debra Lehrmann, Supreme Court of Texas, 2023-2024
- Intern, U.S. Attorney's Office for the Western District of Texas, 2022-2023
- Intern, Supreme Court of the United States, 2019

ADMISSIONS

- Texas
-

PUBLICATIONS AND SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

- "The ERCOT Market's Cap and the Power Grid's Long Winter's Nap: Recommended Improvements to Texas's System-Wide Price-Capping Methodology," author, Texas Law Review, 2021. (Recipient of Texas Law Review's "Outstanding Energy Law Note" Award)