Joe Madonia is an associate in the Capital Markets and Securities Practice Group at Haynes Boone's Dallas office. Joe represents public and private companies in capital markets transactions including public and private securities offerings, mergers and acquisitions, de-SPAC transactions, and digital asset treasury strategy transactions. He also advises public companies on corporate governance, SEC reporting and compliance, and disclosure matters.

Joe's work includes preparing registration statements, periodic and current reports, proxy statements, SEC comment response letters, investor presentations, and beneficial ownership filings. He also drafts and reviews transaction agreements, legal opinions, press releases, board materials, committee charters, corporate policies, and other governance documents for companies listed on Nasdaq and the New York Stock Exchange.
