PRACTICES Finance, Fund Finance

Nick Monier represents financial institutions and borrowers in commercial loan transactions. Whether assisting clients or at home in Dallas, he dedicates himself to his clients, his profession, and his community.

Nick has represented agents, lenders and borrowers in syndicated credit transactions involving revolving credit facilities, term loans, letters of credit, and acquisition financings. He has helped lenders enter into loan facilities, represented agents in amending and restating existing credit agreements, and aided borrowers in financing for acquisitions of over 75 companies. Nick has experience in secured and unsecured credit facilities to real estate investment funds and to the hospitality industry. Nick was an in-house secondee attorney in the syndicated loans legal group for a large international banking institution from May 2020- October 2021, where he assisted and managed outside counsel in a variety of lending transactions. Nick also worked on confidentiality agreements, highly confidential letters, engagement letters, commitment papers and the like during his secondment.

Nick is an active United States Tennis Association competitor and competes in team and individual tournaments in the men's 4.0 division. Nick is a Teach for America 2008 New York City corps alum and was a member of the DFW Teach for America Alumni Board from 2018-2021. He chairs the annual Haynes Boone Dallas office Salvation Army Gift Drive and he is a member of the Young Texans Against Cancer charity organization in Dallas. Nick is also a member of the State Bar of Texas, the Dallas Bar Association, and the Dallas Association of Young Lawyers. Nick lives in University Park with his wife, Julie, and their two children, Lilly and Will.
