Anna Nerush is a corporate energy lawyer focusing on the oil and gas and renewables sectors. Anna advises clients on a wide range of corporate matters, including cross border M&A and joint ventures across multiple sectors including the upstream, midstream, and downstream oil and gas value chain, with projects ranging from unconventional resources to offshore developments, LNG, and refining. She also focuses on the renewables industry with specific experience in solar, wind, and biomass projects.

In addition to acquisitions and divestments in the oil and gas sector, Anna advises clients on onshore and offshore E&P projects, including country entry and related negotiations of subsoil use contracts with host governments, JV structuring and operational matters including JOAs, FDPs, GSAs, farm-ins/farm-outs, crude/gas marketing and offtake agreements, and related issues.

Anna has significant experience of advising on M&A in the renewables sector and negotiating project documentation such as EPC contracts, O&M and A&M agreements, and PPAs as well as development financing of greenfield projects.
