

Mark Nesdill

Associate

Mark.Nesdill@haynesboone.com

Charlotte

PRACTICES Finance, Fund Finance

Mark Nesdill is an associate in the Finance Practice Group in Haynes Boone's Charlotte office. He advises banks and other financial institutions on structuring, negotiating and documenting subscription credit facilities, other secured and unsecured lending arrangements, management fee lines and other fund finance products.

In addition to Mark's experience as a finance attorney, he is extremely knowledgeable about documentation governing private investment vehicles, including governing agreements, side letters and subscription agreement.

QUALIFICATIONS

EDUCATION

- J.D., Washington University in St Louis School of Law, 2017, cum laude; Associate Editor, Washington University Journal of Law and Policy
- B.A., Arizona State University, 2009

ADMISSIONS

- North Carolina
-

AWARDS AND RECOGNITION

- Included in the "Ones to Watch" category of Best Lawyers in America, Woodward/White, Inc., 2022