Christopher Orford is an associate in the Corporate Practice Group in the London office of Haynes Boone.

His practice includes representing companies, shareholders and investors in a variety of business transactions, with a concentration in mergers and acquisitions.

His other areas of practice include private equity and venture capital-backed transactions; joint venture and shareholder structures and arrangements; AIM market IPOs and private placements (representing issuers and brokers); and general corporate matters and representation.

He advises clients in relation to a wide variety of open and closed-ended fund structures established in a number of jurisdictions with a particular focus on hedge funds. He has advised fund managers across a wide range of alternative investment funds, including: private equity/venture capital, alternative asset funds and real asset funds.
