Ken Parker is a partner in the firm's Litigation Department and Intellectual Property Practice Group, and is the Head of the firm's International Trade Commission Section 337 Litigation Group. He is a first-chair trial lawyer who focuses on patent, trademark, copyright, trade secrets, and business litigation. He has tried multiple types of cases to verdict in federal court, state court, and other venues, including patent, trademark, and business cases and International Trade Commission Section 337 patent litigation proceedings. Ken has multiple significant jury verdicts, including a recent $17.5 million verdict in a patent infringement jury trial for his client, Panasonic Holdings Corporation.

Ken's experience includes the following:

- Multiple ITC Section 337 evidentiary hearings and cases, including obtaining and defending against exclusion orders
- Multiple jury trials in patent infringement, trademark infringement and business cases, including multiple multi-million dollar plaintiffs' verdicts and defense victories
- Representation of multiple Fortune 500 and other companies in intellectual property and business disputes

Ken's experience and results have been mentioned in the following publications, among others:

- "A 'top litigator'" who is "phenomenal in front of a jury." World Trademark Review 1000 (WTR 1000), 2016
- Named a Top IP Lawyer in California, Daily Journal, April 19, 2018
