PRACTICES Capital Markets and Securities, Corporate

Tracey Parker is an associate in the Capital Markets and Securities Practice Group in Haynes Boone's Dallas office. Her practice focuses on counseling publicly traded companies, including SEC reporting and compliance, advising management teams and boards of directors, public offerings, commercial transactions, M&A, corporate governance and general corporate matters. Tracey has represented international companies in connection with U.S. listings in capital markets, commercial transactions and operations. She has experience with clients in the life sciences, technology, energy, and financial services sectors. Prior to joining the firm, Tracey was an associate with an international firm in their Boston office.

Tracey received her undergraduate degree at the University of West Florida in Pensacola, Florida and her Juris Doctorate at Georgetown Law University Center in Washington, D.C. Additionally, during law school she participated in a semester abroad at the Center for Transnational Legal Studies in London.
