PRACTICES Intellectual Property, Patent Prosecution and Counseling, Patent Office Trials, Patents

Nora Titus is an associate in the Intellectual Property Practice Group in Haynes Boone's San Francisco office. Her practice focuses on patent office trials and patent prosecution and counseling. In particular, Nora assists clients with patent portfolio valuations from both risk mitigation and strategic perspectives. Her work also includes invalidity analyses and assisting in inter partes filings. Additionally, Nora enjoys community outreach and maintains an active pro bono docket.

Much of her work centers around Wi-Fi and cellular technologies, IoT technologies, computer hardware and software, and networking.

Prior to law school, Nora earned a Bachelor of Science in Engineering from the University of California, Davis. She conducted research under Dr. Colleen Bronner, Ph.D., regarding the experience of women and minorities in the engineering fields.
