PRACTICES Finance, Real Estate Finance, Lender Representation, Asset-Based Lending

Chelsi Vial is an associate in the Finance Practice Group in the Dallas office of Haynes Boone. Her practice focuses on syndicated credit facilities, real estate secured transactions, asset-based lending, acquisition financing, construction lending, mortgage warehouse financing, margin loan facilities, and other large corporate credit facilities.

Chelsi primarily negotiates and structures complex corporate financing transactions for lenders and borrowers alike. Chelsi has worked with corporate entities, public companies, real estate developers, private equity firms, and other borrower entities to obtain senior or subordinated financing. In addition, Chelsi has worked with financial institutions and alternative lenders in a variety of commercial and corporate transactions.

Chelsi regularly works alongside other practice areas within Haynes Boone, as well as local and foreign counsels in order to satisfy all aspects of a client's needs.

Chelsi was selected to participate in the 2024 Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) as a Pathfinder.
