PRACTICES Restructuring, Oil and Gas, Bankruptcy Litigation, Counterparty Insolvency and Risk Management, Distressed M&A, Lender Representation, Chapter 11 Debtor

Martha Wyrick is an associate in the Restructuring Practice Group in the Dallas office of Haynes and Boone. Her practice focuses on all areas of restructuring, including in- and out-of- court workouts, bankruptcy litigation, counterparty insolvency and risk management, distressed M&A, lender representation, creditor representation, and Chapter 11 debtor representation. She has represented clients in a broad range of industries including oil and gas, energy, construction, and retail, among others. She has also represented various international clients, through chapter 15 or complex, worldwide, multi-party workouts.

Martha is active in the Texas bankruptcy bar, and is the current Education Chair of the Houston Chapter of the Turnaround Management Association (TMA). Martha also serves on the Board for the International Women's Insolvency & Restructuring Confederation (IWIRC). Martha regularly takes on pro bono work with Haynes and Boone and most recently assisted with the preparation of an amicus brief with the D.C. Circuit Court of Appeals. Martha also enjoys working with and mentoring law students to give a little bit back to her community.

Prior to joining Haynes and Boone, Martha clerked for the Honorable U.S. Bankruptcy Judge Jeff Bohm in Houston, Texas. She attended the University of Houston Law Center, where she served on the Houston Law Review and worked in the immigration legal clinic.
