PRACTICES Capital Markets and Securities, Corporate, Mergers and Acquisitions

Taylor West is an associate in the Capital Markets and Securities Practice Group in the Charlotte office of Haynes Boone. His practice primarily focuses on public and private securities offerings, including initial public offerings, secondary offerings, and exempt offerings pursuant to Regulation D, Regulation A and Regulation Crowdfunding. Taylor also has experience in corporate governance and securities compliance matters, including reporting obligations under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, compliance with exchange listing standards and the preparation of filings with the SEC and state securities offices. In addition, Taylor assists both public and private companies in connection with mergers and acquisitions.

While earning his law degree, Taylor spent a semester studying international business law at Universidade Católica Portuguesa in Lisbon, taking courses on EU banking and securities law.
